Presidents Report – October 2017

Welcome everyone to our October Newsletter

Hopefully most of you will be getting out to take advantage of the spring growth and secure some venison. It doesn't feel like spring weather yet but the lawns at home are requiring a weekly mow.

Another Branch hunt has taken place in the Kaimai and I hope those that took part enjoyed the weekend and thanks to Tim for organising the trip.
Stan and I recently attended a Kaimai Ridgeway Trust meeting held at Whakamarama where the trustees outlined the progress on track maintenance by several groups, and also outlined what stage the hut plans were at. The plans require some approvals by engineers etc and it should be all go. Keep your fingers crossed!! The name has been chosen for the hut but I can't spell it!!

We received an invitation from Tuhoe to attend the Te Kawa Te Urewera launch at their new building at Taneatua and four of our committee attended. Dave, Keith, Chris and Stan attended on our behalf and it would appear we were one of the few groups outside government officials invited. A large number of our members hunt in the Te Urewera and we are endeavouring to build a strong relationship with the governing body of Tuhoe and contribute to where we are able.
This month's meeting will see the windup for the Hunts Course and we will also have our National President Bill O'Leary as a guest speaker. Supper will be provided so please show your support for the club and those volunteers that keep this club ticking over by attending.
We are currently planning an official opening for the range which will allow us the opportunity to thank the organisations that have supported us financially to achieve the progress made so far. Watch this space for dates.
That's about all for this month, see you at club night.
Clyde

BRANCH HUNT REPORT

Volunteers Needed

Aongatete King Fern Project

As previously notified in our newsletter we are working in conjunction with the Aongatete Trust to protect an area of king ferns close to the Aongatete Lodge from destruction by opossums and deer that think they are a very desirable food. As these ferns are not in very many other places in our area we as Deerstalkers are very keen to assist in this project to reinforce our commitment to conservation and participate to a very worthy community project.

All the preliminary work with DOC and the Aongatete Trust has been completed and the materials are on site ready for the work to begin. This is where you as members can have an input. No special skills are required. Russell Nelson, an experienced fencer is overseeing the work and needs volunteers to help lay the posts and strainers out ready and also to dig post holes etc. The only equipment you need if you have it is a narrow spade, a fluro vest, plus your lunch and drink.

Date – Starting on Friday 13th October until completed

If we can get plenty of muscle power and the weather plays the game this job should be completed in a few days so if you are able to give a day or two please put your name and contact details down at the next club night or contact me by email or phone.

NZDA HUNTS COURSE 2017 BOP

Ngamuwahine Lodge; In the Kaimais, was the site of the first overnight trip where HUNTS (Hunter National Training Scheme) course members were taught a wide array of skills, such as navigation, bush survival, and butchery.

If the 2017 New Zealand Deerstalkers HUNTS Course was indicative of past years courses, then I would call the program a definite success. Even though I had been out in the bush several times over past years hunting with mates, I felt increased confidence knowing that I had been exposed to all aspects of hunting, even more so since the NZDA course teaches “Best Practice”, and covers a wide array of necessary hunting and survival skills. Hats off to all the instructors and volunteers who made the class so memorable for me.

The course, led by Keith Theobald, Doug Williams, and Bob Tatton, kicked off on July 24th, at the NZDA BOP branch headquarters in Tauriko, with introductions and a presentation about ethical and environmental responsibilities, and an very informative Alex Gale video.

Next Anja Morris gave her account of the best first aid skills to use in the bush, tailored to New Zealand conditions. Even though I have had training in advanced first aid, I learned a lot. This is one lady you would be very glad to see if you ever really found yourself in the crapper out in the wilds.

Now it was time for the first weekend trip to Ngamuwahine lodge, and there was a definite excitement in the class. As you can see from the above photo, we didn’t exactly rough it. We stayed the weekend right on the doorstep of some beautiful native bush, and the Ngamuwahine stream. The first night, we got stuck into equipment , and trip planning with Paul Adamson and Jamie Fairbairn. Talking about all the cool gear one

Could purchase seemed to invigorate the instructors, and before long everyone was pulling exotic bits of kit out to compare.

Ngamuwahine Lodge is “Glamping” at it’s finest, and is really a 4 star lodge and full compound, replete with a rock climbing wall and outdoor kitchen.

The next day, up early for brekkie, we set off to learn track and clue awareness, then later in the day skinning and dressing techniques from Les Nelson, and a butchery demonstration by Shane Englebretsen. Graeme Warrender brought several bow and arrow kits, and we set about shooting holes in the paddock

Next door, some shots even finding their way into the targets! Bob Mankelow was a fountain of knowledge about all things herbal or plant related. The well known trail called “Bob’s Loop” is named after this gentleman, and I was honoured to share in a little of his bush wisdom.

River crossing was then accomplished, a skill that is often overlooked by hunters in it’s importance. Map and compass theory was covered, and turned out to be a very complex subject, sparking several heated engineer-driven debates about things like mercators and meridians.

Then on that Sunday, Bob Mankelow again took us out in the hills to test our navigation and bush skills. After a cleanup of the lodge we were away, and the Douglas method of big game scoring was the next topic, covered at the clubhouse by David Harris, Les Nelson and Keith Theobald. Les displayed his antler collection showing 15 years of one animal.

Brent Martin gave a Search & Rescue presentation back in Tauriko clubhouse, and Jamie Fairbairn shared some of his vast knowledge of wildlife photography and hunting in general. Not all shooting involves firearms!

Richard Mc Ewen, Arthur Hudson, and Lester Polglase, Bob Tatton and Doug Williams then got down and dirty with more detail about firearms, firearms safety, reloading and ballistics, and I was also very impressed when the NZ Army sent two of it’s finest ambassadors in the form of Dwayne Day and Rueben Kelly to teach us the real deal about shooting positions and proper gun handling in the field. They also met us the next day at TECT Park, where the NZDA Rifle Range is located, and put our aim to the test, along with lots of personalised expert instruction.

I saw a definite improvement in my skills from only one day of professional instruction. A map and compass exercise out from the Rifle Range also gave us some more hands-on field training in navigation, and map usage.

John Miekle from Fish & Game shared some of his passion for game bird hunting, and Lester Polglase went over marksmanship, before we again went to TECT park to sight in our rifles and get some more target practice.

Now for the “Big weekend”; our trip to Waikaremoana and the one on one hunt with an experienced NZDA hunter. Kudos to our Waikaremoana guides Stan Lowe, Chris Munro, Stuart Bostock, Murray James, and our own Arthur, Doug , Bob, Lester and Keith. Even though Keith, who has headed the branch for many years, is slowly turning over some of the duties to others, he is still a big part of the program, and I wish to personally thank him here for all his efforts in making the course a success.

Frank Fergusson also made a special guest appearance from the Auckland Branch of the NZDA as he and Lester were assessing Doug Williams and Bob Tatton as future HUNTS course instructors, and Bob was good enough to allow the use of his boat to access some of the far reaches around the lake.

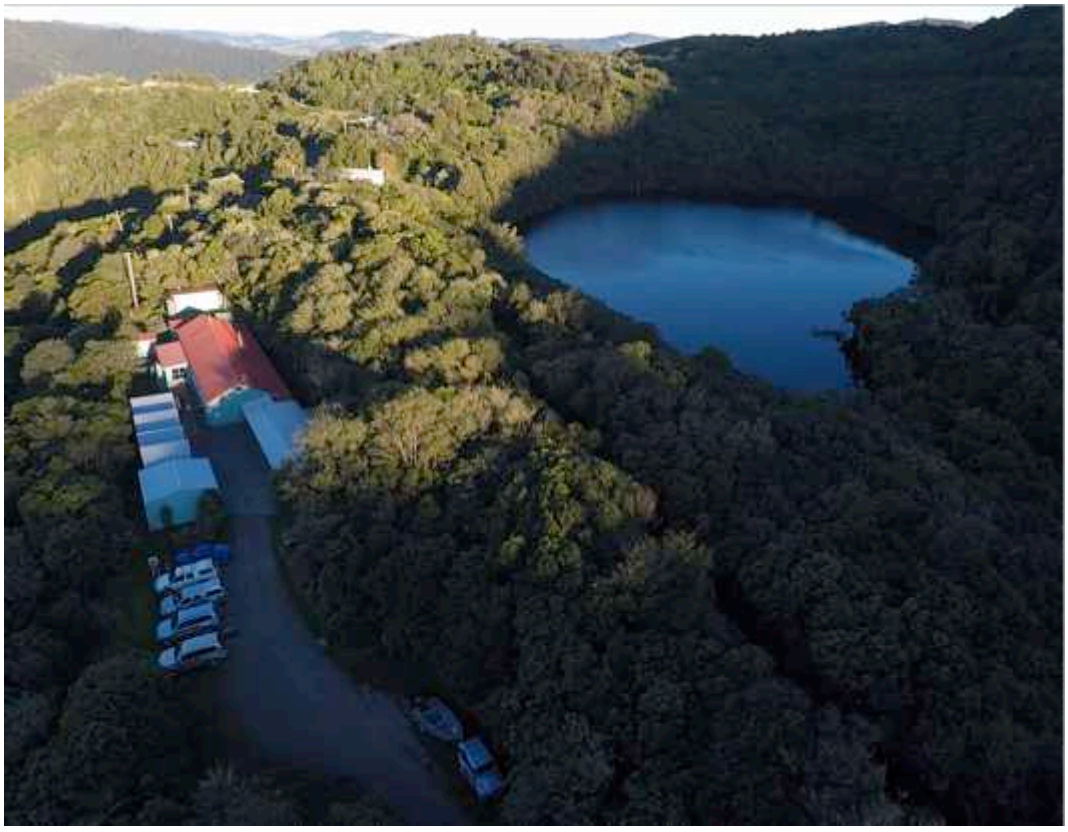
Regardless of the success rate of the paired hunters, I think everyone had a memorable weekend, and there was good cameraderie while sitting around the woodburner at night telling story as well as within the group during the day and while on the hunt itself.

Stoney Creek gear also presented us with a fluoro beanie and high viz vest, and in our packet was also a $20 gift voucher from Hamill's Sporting Goods.

All in all, I found the NZDA HUNTS course to be a fantastic value, the cost of the course far exceeded in just one weekend, and something I would not hesitate to recommend to anyone interested in becoming a more knowledgeable outdoorsman, and a better and safer hunter.

Good Hunting!

Randall Douglas



Camp Kitawa; Near Lake Waikaremoana, was the site of the HUNTS course final assessment, where participants were paired one on one with experienced hunters.

CODE OF ETHICS

A peculiar virtue in wildlife ethics is that the hunter ordinarily has no gallery to applaud or disapprove of his conduct. Whatever his act they are dictated by his own conscience, rather than by a mob of onlookers. It is difficult to exaggerate the importance of this fact.
Aldo Leopold, The Sand County Almanac.

A member of the New Zealand Deerstalkers' Association Incorporated will be expected to;

1. Approach recreational hunting from the highest possible level of ethics, having due regard to the welfare of the animals hunted, and prevention of cruelty to the same
2. Not hunt or carry a firearm on property without the proper approval of the owner, occupier of controlling authority and shall strictly observe any conditions imposed upon him
3. Be a responsible firearms owner and abide by current Firearms Laws
4. Avoid unnecessary or deliberate damage to the environment, respect property, and other users of the outdoors
5. Advocate sensible conservation practices at all times and promote New Zealand's biodiversity 'in situ'
6. Practice the Field Guidelines when out hunting
7. Be exemplary members of NZDA by promoting and abiding by its Rules, Field Guidelines and this Code of Ethics.
